

"All children have the right to equitable learning opportunities that help them achieve their full potential as engaged learners and valued members of society."
NAEYC, 2019

1. Where can you find evidence that all children see themselves and their family represented?
2. Where can you find evidence that all children's unique strengths and abilities are valued?
3. Where can you find evidence that all children can build trusting relationships with others?
4. Where can you find evidence that all children can take risks and support their individual needs as learners?
5. How can you implement what you see AND hear today to provide equitable learning experiences for all children in your work?

"All children have the right to equitable learning opportunities that help them achieve their full potential as engaged learners and valued members of society."
NAEYC, 2019

1. Where can you find evidence that all children see themselves and their family represented?
2. Where can you find evidence that all children's unique strengths and abilities are valued?
3. Where can you find evidence that all children can build trusting relationships with others?
4. Where can you find evidence that all children can take risks and support their individual needs as learners?
5. How can you implement what you see AND hear today to provide equitable learning experiences for all children in your work?