

GWENDENA LEE-GATEWOOD

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE CHAIRWOMAN
WHITE MOUNTAIN APACHE TRIBE

PROCLAMATION

Week of the Young Child April 10-16, 2021

WHEREAS the First Things First White Mountain Apache Tribe Regional Partnership Council and local partner organizations, in conjunction with the National Association for the Education of Young Children, will be celebrating the Week of the Young child, April 10-16, 2021; and

WHEREAS these organizations are working to improve early learning opportunities, which are crucial to the growth and development of young children, and building a foundation of learning for everyone on the White Mountain Apache tribe; and

WHEREAS all young children and their families in the State of Arizona and White Mountain Apache Tribe deserve access to high-quality early childhood education; and

WHEREAS public policies and programs that support early learning for all young children are critical to young children's futures and the success of our community; and

WHEREAS teachers and others who make a difference in the lives of young children and families on the White Mountain Apache Tribe in Arizona deserve thanks and recognition;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gwendena Lee-Gatewood, Chairwoman of the White Mountain Apache Tribe, do hereby proclaim the week of April 10-16, 2021 as "Week of the Young Child on the White Mountain Apache Tribe", and encourage all community partners to work together to make good investments in early childhood health and development.
