

- WHEREAS, All young children deserve quality early learning environments that support them as capable, competent lifelong learners; and
- WHEREAS, Nurturing parenting, quality and accessible childcare, and early education programs build strong brains during the critical years from birth to age 5; and
- WHEREAS, Investments in babies and young children has profound impacts on creating strong and vibrant communities; and
- WHEREAS, First Things First, Arizona Association for the Education of Young Children, Southern Arizona Association for the Education of Young Children, and other community organizations, in conjunction with the National Association for the Education of Young Children, are celebrating the 51st anniversary of the Week of the Young Child; and
- WHEREAS, These organizations are working to improve equitable early learning opportunities that can provide a foundation of learning for Arizona's children; and
- WHEREAS, Early childhood educators and others who make a difference in the lives of young children deserve thanks, recognition, and support; and
- WHEREAS, Public policies that support early learning for all young children are crucial to helping Arizona's families, communities, and economy thrive.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Greater Vail Area Chamber of Commerce does hereby proclaim April 2-8, 2022 as the Week of the Young Child in Vail, Arizona and encourage all citizens to support and invest in early childhood education in our community.