

Developmentally Appropriate Practices (DAP) Virtual ECHO Series

Recruit and retain qualified early childhood educators through this virtual series that includes training, resources, and job-embedded professional development (PD) for your entire teaching staff!

In this no-cost series, your staff will participate in 7 virtual 1.5 hour sessions to study the new Developmentally Appropriate Practices book from NAEYC and learn how to provide equitable, responsive, inclusive early learning environments that help all children and families thrive.

BENEFITS FOR YOUR SITE/SCHOOL:

- 1 copy of the new DAP book for each staff
- Stipends up to $300 for each staff to participate
- 1 Entry Level NAEYC membership for each staff
- $150 worth of early learning supplies for each classroom to increase the quality of interactions and experiences
- 12 hours of credit in the Arizona Early Childhood Workforce Registry + PD certificates for each session
- 4 hours of reflective job-embedded PD support for each staff to practice implementing what they learn about DAP
- A schedule that is built around your program needs
- Individualized coaching assistance available for program directors/administrators to provide support for business practices such as building in paid PD time or budgeting

Contact

info@azaeyc.org for more info and to request to join

Recruiting sites/schools now for series starting in Spring 2023.

Learn more:

azaeyc.org/dap-echo

This project is made possible thanks to federal coronavirus relief funding awarded to Arizona Association for the Education of Young Children from the State of Arizona and allocated by the Arizona House Democratic Caucus.

Collaborating Partners:

