- Wrap up and session evaluation

Announcements

We encourage you to volunteer as a homework case presenter.

It's a great way to share your insight and reflections! You will fill out a form with a few questions about what went well and what was a challenge with your homework. You'll also hear ideas from your colleagues and the hub team.
Homework Presentations - Small Groups

1. Respond to the Thought Questions on p. 25
   - What do you know about how young children develop and learn?
   - Why are supportive relationships and environments so important to children's development and learning?

Facilitators - Add notes in Jamboard.

Large Group Discussion

- What are your reflections on Chapter 2?
- What connections do you see between Chapter 2 of DAP and your work with young children and families?
- Groups and Hub Team members discuss

Community Agreements

1. Be present as fully as possible (Center for Courage & Renewal, 2021)
2. Speak from the "I"
3. Speak your truth in ways that respect other people's truth (Center for Courage & Renewal, 2021)
4. Take risks and act with humility
5. Suspend judgment in order to remain open and curious
6. "We will find and work from our 'growing edge'" (Jordan & Madison, 2021)
7. Be accountable for impact

The 9 Principles of Child Development & Learning: Numbers 5-9 in a Preschool Classroom

Session #5 | November 22, 2022
Didactic Presenter:
Dr. Eric Bucher

The 9 Principles of Child Development and Learning - Number 5-9 on p. 37-46

5. Children are active learners from birth, constantly taking in and organizing information to create meaning through their relationships, interactions with their environment, and overall experiences (p. 37)

A Process of "Making Meaning"

- Young children are:
  - Capable of highly complex thinking
  - Observe, experience, and interact with the world through play and relationships
  - Bring unique cultural "funds of knowledge" to their early childhood environment

Children's motivation to learn is increased when their learning environment fosters their sense of belonging, purpose, and agency.

6. Curricula and teaching methods should build on each child's assets by connecting their experiences in the school or learning environment to their home and community settings (p. 39).

Affirmative and Respectful Environments

- Children's sense of belonging, agency, and ownership over their learning can be encouraged (or discouraged) based on how teachers approach interactions.
- Children must see themselves reflected in the environment (their ideas, identities, images, and cultures).

Children learn in an integrated fashion that cuts across disciplines and subject areas.
7. Because subject-area knowledge is established in ECE, educators need subject-area knowledge, an understanding of learning progressions, and pedagogical knowledge about teaching effectively (p. 41).

Scaffolding supports children's continued growth.

8. Development and learning advance when children are challenged to achieve a level just beyond their current mastery and when they have many opportunities to reflect on and practice newly acquired skills (p. 42).

Technology and media are valuable learning tools.

9. When used responsibly and intentionally, technology and interactive media can be valuable tools for supporting children's development and learning (p. 44).

Questions/Reflections

In the chat box, please share…

What are you thinking about the 9 principles of child development?

What is most important to remember?
Small Group Reflections

Discuss the 9 Principles of Child Development. What stands out to you? What are you thinking about now that you perhaps had not considered before?

Determine a speaker for the group who will share your ideas back in the main Zoom room.

Do you have a new lens or thought to share? Are you seeing something the same or different?

Small Group Reflections

5 minutes

- What stands out to you? What are you thinking about now that you perhaps had not considered before?
- Has your thinking changed or been reinforced? Why?
- Group and hub team discuss

Homework for January 2023

1. Gather 2-3 photographs that you shared during your December 2022 job-embedded collaborative planning meeting. Select ones that reflect children's strengths.
2. Write down your reflections:
   - What do you notice about joy? Is joy different from happiness? Why?
   - What are you learning about the children's abilities and capacities as learners? What surprised you or captured your attention?

ECHO Post Session Surveys

- All Participants are invited to complete surveys at end of each session.

- Your participation in completing the post-session surveys is voluntary and anonymous.

- The results will be used for program improvement. Aggregated survey results may be used for publication, reports, and dissemination of program outcomes.

- A link to the survey will be put in the chat box at the end of each session (7 total) and emailed the next day

Wrap Up and Evaluation

⏳ 5 minutes

- Reminder: Volunteer to present a homework case! Email Karie.

- Please complete the session evaluation linked in the CHAT
